DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

New corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in this application because the drawings submitted are too dark and it is difficult to see the different parts of the cap. Applicant is advised to employ the services of a competent patent draftsman outside the Office, as the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office no longer prepares new drawings. The corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The requirement for corrected drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Examiner's Amendment

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the Claims:

Claim 12, line 9, change "sad" to --said--.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-20 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Regarding claim 1, none of the prior art suggests or discloses the vial having a circumferential notch and having a pivotal needle protection with a collar press fitted onto the neck. The closest prior art is the patent to Feldschuh, US 5,529,189, but this does not disclose or suggest the claimed features. Olson, US 5,011,475 discloses a pivotal protector attached to a syringe barrel, but does not show the main features of the claim. Regarding claim 7, Hollister et al., US 6,551,287 exemplifies the state of the art. Some may argue that fingers 6 of figure 1d could reasonably be interpreted to have planar extensions, however, Hollister does not in addition show the sleeve being internally threaded for mating with a Luer of the needle. Hollister US 4,982,842 discloses internal threads (see Figure 2A, for example), but there is no motivation to combine the two features. Regarding claims 12 and 16, these independent claims are narrower than the above discussed independent claims and are allowable for the same reasons.

Art Unit: 3762

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
